

BURNS, LECTURER, SAYS TEACHER IS GREATEST ARTIST

You Can Do Anything You Want To Do If It Is Right, He Says.

SPEAKER STRESSES KINDNESS GOSPEL

Tells How Education Has Ended Bitter Feuds
In Kentucky.

"You can do anything you want to do if it is right and you keep on trying."

This was the keynote of a message
of human interest seldom heard on
the lecture platform delivered Wednesday night at the First Methodist church by James A. Burns, president and founder of Oneida institute and known on the platform as "Burns of the Mountains."

Stressing the gospel of kindness
to our fellow-men Mr. Burns told
of the struggles of the early settlers
in the Kentucky mountains, of their bitter battles during the famous feuds
of those hills and of their final victory in bringing to an end the feuds
that for years had "sealed the death
warrants of their children in the blood of their fathers."

Mr. Burns' father, one of the early settlers in the Kentucky mountains,
left his old home to go to West Virginia because of the fear that his children would be brought up in the spirit of the feuds. After the death of his father, Mr. Burns returned to the old homestead and found that there were nearly 500,000 people in that state living in illiteracy and feudism.

Returning to his home in West Virginia after taking part in many of the bitter feud battles of the Kentucky hills, living through four years
of such fighting without being hurt,
Mr. Burns was sent to Dennison college at Granville, Ohio, by the Baptist church of West Virginia.

Mr. Burns entered college after having had but 10 months of education. He did not complete his course
at Dennison but left with the idea
firmly impressed on his mind that it was his calling to return to the Kentucky hills and bring the light of education to the children of that region.

"A teacher is the greatest artist on earth," said Mr. Burns, "and the sooner we realize this the sooner our schools are going to be 100 per cent Americanized."

The building of the first school
building in the mountains came during one of the most bitter feud battles in the history of the Kentucky
hills and was a result of the mediation of Mr. Burns.

When this building was finished
Burns was named president and 12
trustees were elected. "It was a strange scene when we had elected
these 12 trustees and found that no
six of them could write their names
on the charter," said Mr. Burns. "And to think that the charter was for an educational institution," he added.
This school was 24 miles from the nearest railroad and Mr. Burns declared that "he was the only founder of an educational institution that had laid the actual foundation of the building himself."

The first school has grown until today the Oneida institute and its land has a value of $150,000 and this is expected to be increased 10 times
with the advent of the railroad. The school has a student body of 500 and has a waiting list larger than the
entire body of students in the school.
Since 1914 Mr. Burns has been constantly before the public, having lectured in every state in the Union and practically every province in Canada. He devotes his entire time to the lecture platform now.

WALTER S. BRUSH EXPIRES IN WEST

L. H. Brush of this city, was notified Thursday morning of the death
of his brother, Walter S. Brush, which occurred at his home in Los Angeles, Calif. He had been ill ten days of pneumonia.

Mr. Brush was a prominent manufacturer and real estate dealer. He was born Sept. 25, 1868, in Mt. Union

He attended Mt. Union college and left Alliance 35 years ago, having resided since in Oswego, Minneapolis, Tonawanda, N. Y., and Los Angeles. He had been in California 25 years.

Mr. Brush's wife died 23 years ago
and he is survived by one son, Harold Sherwood Brush, of Los Angeles.
Other survivors are his mother, Mrs.
A. M. Brush, of Canton, former professor in Mt. Union college; two

Quake Destroys Many Houses, People Flee

Mother-in-Law Not Creature To Be Feared Says Minister

Many Misunderstandings Over Mere Trifles Traceable To Neglect Of Home To Teach Essential Qualities Of Manliness And Womanhood, Says Rev. Beers.

"When you say, 'Mother-in-law,'
many people open their eyes a bit
wider and appear peculiarly interested just as if you were about to liber-
ate a dangerous and undesirable
person," said Rev. G. A. Beers in a sermon on "A Good Mother-in-Law," Wednesday night at the Baptist church.

"I once saw a series of comic pictures designed to emphasize this very thing. There was the bride, all beautiful and charming; the happy
groom; the solemn clergyman, and others of the bridal party, then, last
of all, with a severe look on her face
and a broom in her hand, a solidly
built matron who announced, 'I'm
the mother-in-law, and don't forget
it!'"

"That picture did tell the truth in a few instances but in the great majority of cases it is untrue to the facts. Our mothers-in-law are not creatures to be feared and disliked,
who spread terror and trouble in the hearts of their new children-in-law.

House Of David" Inmates Testify At Hearing.

Mrs. Ethel Mills and Harriet B. Walker (Below)

Harriet Bauschke Walker, known as the "fashion plate" of the "House of David," "King" Benjamin Purnell's
amazing religious cult, at Benton Harbor, Mich., was summoned before the grand jury investigation in St. Joseph, of the charge of gross immorality
in the colony. Her stylish clothes, in contrast to the poor garb usually worn by the inmates, drew a charge
from the prosecuting attorney that she had been bribed by "King" Benjamin.
She is said to have been one of his
pets. Mrs. Estil Mills alleged, at Detroit, that she had been betrayed to
"King" Benjamin by her own sister,
Edith Meldrum, "female pillar" of the cult.

BLINDED BY SNOW, WOMAN IS KILLED

Steps In Front Of An Auto
While Crossing Street
In Alliance.

an automobile driven by A. G. Freeman of Alliance, and was killed almost instantly.

The view of the auto driver was also obscured and he was in the act
of cleaning his windshield when the woman was run down. She was carried into an office where she died
within a few minutes of a fractured skull.

Mrs. Kaye is survived by her husband, Ellsworth Kaye, and two chil-

DAMAGE TO FRUIT WAS SLIGHT, SAYS REPORT ON FREEZE

Further Danger Of Frost
Isn't Likely; Warmer
Rest Of Week.

Columbus, May 10.—Although frost
was general throughout Ohio last night, there are no indications of serious results, according to officials at the U. S. weather bureau
here today. There is no further danger of frost, said these officials, who predicted fair and warmer weather
or the rest of this week.

The light snowfall which was prevalent throughout the state yesterday was followed by temperatures
last night ranging from 27 degrees
at Norwalk and Bellefontaine to 35
here, weather bureau officials said.

Damage Due to Freeze

Newark, May 10.—According to the statement of F. H. Balbo, professor in the Ohio Experiment station at Wooster and whose home is here, the crops are not materially
damaged from the present viewpoint
although it will take several days to fully determine full extent of the damage.

A steady breeze during the night
prevented frost and the damage
that was done was due to a slight freeze.

F. H. Smith, superintendent of the E. H. Everett Fruit farm at Blackhacker, near here, and which has 12,000 fruit trees of various kinds,
states general observation reveals very slight damage to the trees. The mercury on a government instrument
registered 34 at midnight and 32 at sunrise today.

Loss In W. Virginia

Wheeling, May 10.—Estimate of E.
N. Hunter, farm bureau agent here,
today was to the effect that loss to
the fruit crop from last night's freeze would be approximately $200,
000 in the four panhandle counties
of this state.

International at Chicago, asking headquarters to broadcast an appeal to

SALEM RUBBER CO. MAY ENLARGE ITS TIRE PLANT HERE

Additional Equipment Also Planned To Increase
Output 50 Percent.

TIRE SALES JUMP IN RECENT MONTHS

Salem Company Is Building
Cord Tires Exclusively
At Present.

A new building and the installation of additional equipment necessary to increase the output of Salem
Cord tires 50 per cent is being contemplated by the directors of the Salem Rubber company, according to a statement issued today by President C. A. Tinsman.

This plan to double the output of the local factory has been made necessary because the sale of Salem
Cord tires has shown an increase of 50 per cent in the last 12 months. The factory is at present employing 325
shift of men in the production of 325
Salem Cord tires daily and Mr. Tins-
man declares that the increased sales
is a normal expansion growing out of the company's definite aim to produce a dependable cord tire.

The Salem Rubber company is now
building cord tires exclusively as the result of a policy established by the directors shortly after the present
organization took over the plant and business of the Porter Rubber company in November, 1921.

The wholesome and steady growth
of the Salem Rubber company was
not interrupted by the depression,
felt last year by many industries in this section of the state, and today
the company shares with other leading industries in Salem the general
business improvement that has come
with increased orders.

The company has received complimentary letters from satisfied
users who report that Salem Cords
show an average mileage well over the 10,000 mark.

OIL EXPLOSION TAKES 11 LIVES

Flames In Texas Oil Lease
Are Still Raging; Heat
Prevents Rescue.

Powell, Tex., May 10.—Fire, which starting from an explosion, already has cost the lives of 11 persons and
serious injury to at least five others,
was still raging early today at the Hughes-Mokiel oil lease here.

The glare is visible for miles around and no effort yet has been made to control the fire.

Four bodies are in the flames as yet unidentified. One man is missing.

Two crews were exchanging shifts
when the explosion occurred. There was a sudden blinding flash and in an instant a huge lake of oil surrounding the workings was ablaze.

Those who were at a distance
could see men plunging madly about
in the fire only to fall in their tracks
and burn to death. Clothing of the workmen already was saturated with oil.

The intense heat prevented the
would be rescuers from even approaching the blaze. Plans were made today to fight the fire with steam.

Origin of the fire which caused
the explosion is unknown, but the theory advanced by oil workers is that pebbles thrown from the well
came in contact with a steel control
head, causing a spark.

The well, one of the greatest gushers in the Mexico field, came in Tuesday and was flowing at the rate of 5,000 barrels a day.

STRUCK BY TRAIN, DIES IN HOSPITAL

Man's Legs Cut Off As He Steps Directly In Train's Path.

East Liverpool, May 10.—(Spl)—
William Owen, 35, of Pittsburg, died
shortly before 1 p. m. today as the result of injuries sustained when he was struck by an eastbound Pennsylvania freight train at 10:30 a. m.
today at Midland.

Owen, an employee of the Philip Carey Construction company, of Pittsburg, had come to Midland this morning. Attempting to cross the railway tracks enroute to his work,
he is believed to have become confused by the approach of trains coming in opposite directions, stepping
directly in front of the eastbound
train.

Both legs were cut off by the wheels of the train and he also sustained injuries about the head and body. He was brought to the hospital but failed to regain consciousness.

Winona Man Injured While Repairing Car

pair garage here, was injured in an accident about 11:30 a. m. Wednesday, while repairing a truck for Ernest Walton. Some part of the jack used to raise the machine came
loose in some way and struck Mr.
Weaver on the back of the head. He is confined to his bed but the atten-
ing physician expects him to be around in a few days.

Rules Against Dow Tax Collection In A Wellsville Case

Lisbon, May 10.—Judge W.
F. Duncan Thursday morning
handed down an opinion in a case in which the county officials desired to collect Dow
tax against a property in Wellsville owned by Mrs. Kate Jackson.

A tenant in the property had sold some intoxicating liquor
and was arrested for it in 1921.
The county officials, acting
under the law, assessed this tax
against the property.

After hearing the evidence
and reviewing the case Judge Duncan stated that in his opinion the tax was not a lien
against the property and should not be collected.

PHYSICIANS' "WET" PRESCRIPTIONS NOT LIMITED IS RULING

National Dry Leaders Plan
Immediate Appeal To Supreme Court.

Washington, May 10.—The government will not relax its rules limiting physicians' liquor prescriptions until
the supreme court declares them unconstitutional.

This was the answer of prohibition
officials today, following the decision
of Federal Judge Knox at New York,
declaring congress has no power to limit doctors in prescribing whisky or other intoxicants for their patients.

At the department of justice it was declared that the government will interpose no objection to early action
by the highest court to decide the rights of doctors, under the federal enforcement act.

Refusal of prohibition officials to liberalize their regulations, is expected to lead to the filing of other suits
in federal courts in the different states in which medical groups will seek relief from the rigid prohibitions
of the Volstead law and the Willis-Campbell beer act, by the injunction
route.

Doubt Has Existed
While the injunction granted by Judge Knox merely prohibits federal authorities from interfering with the practice of a single physician, it was declared at the department of justice
that the precedent thus established
would prove an effective argument
which physicians or physicians' societies in all parts of the United States can successfully use if they seek a similar injunction.

Treasury officials supervising prohibition enforcement frankly declared
there has been much doubt among the government's legal advisers over the
constitutional right of prohibition authorities to restrict doctors in their treatment of cases in which intoxicants are known to have a therapeutic value. The regulations, however,
were drafted to conform to the strict
provisions of the Willis-Campbell law
and the original enforcement act.

National dry leaders and officials of the Anti-Saloon league plan to take an immediate appeal from the decision in the hope of obtaining an early verdict from the supreme court. They looked upon the decision as a blow
at enforcement of the dry law.

CLEAN-UP DEFICIT $25, CITY REPORTS

Service Director Bristol Satisfied With Campaign Results.

ducted by the city under supervision

fees collected for hauling away rubbish amounted to $335.37, leaving a

Ninety-five loads were hauled away
during the week by the five teams
and city workers. Ten men were engaged in the work, five of these being city laborers. The remaining men are owners of the team used in the work.

killed himself as a result of differences with his mother over his love
for Doris Fuchs, in the opinion of

He denied he had ordered the students to cease search for the Freshman in 1921 after a class fight.

Massillon Photographer Is Able To Crawl To His Porch, Then Dies.

BROUGHT TO HOME OF WIFE'S MOTHER

Robbery Not Motive For Pennington's Money Is Not Disturbed.

Funeral service for William T.
Pennington, 59, Massillon photographer who was murdered early Monday night by an unknown assailant, was conducted at 10:30 a. m.
Thursday at the home of Mrs. Mary Tomy, 126 East Sixth st., with interment in Hope cemetery.

Mr. Pennington was murdered
within a block of his home in Massillon and is believed to have been a victim of mistaken identity. With nine stab wounds in his body he staggered to the front porch of his home, where he died before medical assistance could be summoned.

Mr. Pennington had gone to a nearby confectionery to buy a package of gum for his wife. Returning he was attacked in a private driveway
about a block from his home. Bleeding from nine deep stab wounds he managed to reach his front porch
where he was found by his wife. A trail of blood led from the scene of the attack to the home.

Stabbed Many Times.
Coroner T. H. Shorb said that his examination showed that death was caused by the severing of a large artery supplying blood to the left lung. He said that Pennington was stabbed by a long thin, two-edged weapon, probably a stiletto. His wounds were inflicted mostly in the breast, some of them five inches in depth. He was also stabbed in the back and neck.

When found, the dying man was
still clutching in his hand the package of gum for which he had left
his house a few minutes before.
According to Coroner Shorb, the motive for the killing was not robbery, for the murdered man's watch
and money were undisturbed in his pockets.

The coroner said that the attack
on the photographer was carried out so quickly that a resident of the neighborhood was reading in his house near the drive where the murder occurred and heard nothing unusual.

The murder victim is survived by his widow, formerly Miss Clara Tomy. He had been a resident of Massillon during the past 12 years.

HELD ON CHARGE OF TRANSPORTING

Three Negroes Arrested As Liquor Is Found In Their Truck.

East Palestine, May 10.—Three
negroes, Wally Price, Walter Mc-Cloud and John Johnson, whose homes are said to be in Youngstown,
were arrested on the outskirts of East Palestine Wednesday afternoon
on a charge of illegally possessing
and transporting liquor.

The arrests were made by Chief of Police Walter Warren, Patrolman S.
Ed. Harvey, Dr. S. E. Conrad and a state prohibition agent named Thomas. According to the officers,
there was a 10-gallon keg of whisky
in the automobile occupied by the negroes.

The officers said they learned the negroes were bringing the liquor from Youngstown to a negro settlement
near East Palestine.

The negroes were brought back to the city and lodged in the city jail to await a hearing. Last night they were arraigned before Mayor A. W. Ferron
and after all three had pleaded not guilty to the charge preferred against them, they were remanded to jail to await a later hearing.

Municipal Ownership

MUNICIPAL ownership of public utilities is fast running its course. There are a few new experiments being made, but there is a growing list of failures and woeful cases of waste of taxpayers' money on stubborn attempts to make communities support politically ridden properties. Soon the people will be begging private enterprises to take them off their hands, as the Communists of Germany now are trying to unload many of their undertakings upon private corporations and others on private manage-ments.

The United States census bureau and the McGraw directory supply interesting information on this phase of municipal ownership. Recent statistics bear on light plants. There has been a decided tendency in recent years for municipalities to turn over the manufacture of power to private companies and hang onto the more easily manipulated distributing work. In 1912 less than nine per cent of the municipal plants in the United States purchased their power from private producers. In 1917 the proportion had risen to 23.3 per cent and in 1921 to 26 per cent. Now all the municipally owned and operated plants produce only four per cent of the electrically-generated power in the United States. Of the population 93.8 per cent is served by private corporations and 6.2 per cent by municipal plants.

Service costs provide another striking contrast and show that politics in the operation of utilities is expensive. The census bureau reports that in 1921 the average tax rate of cities having municipal plants was $19.31. The average rate in cities supplied from non-municipal plants was $15.59. This was partly because where municipal plants are exempted from taxation, so that their political managers can have more leeway, the rates on other property is proportionately higher. Also, because the taxes levied on private plants help to reduce the taxes on other property and to lower the average.

It is not surprising, therefore, that there should be a tiring of the public with municipal ownership and operation of utilities. A costly lesson has been learned by many communities where the experiment has been tried. Others also will learn. And yet, there will be communities to rush blindly into the clutch of municipal ownership in spite of all experience of others.

GOOD REASON FOR QUITTING

Bob Fitzsimmons May Have Been Wrong in Judgment Concerning "Gameness" of His Son.

The best story observed in print for some time is told by Joe Vila in the Sun about young Robert Fitzsimmons. Young Fitz is considerably bigger and stronger than his father ever was, he is quick with his hands and with his head, he knows the science of the game. But it seems he can't stand up and take it. Mr. Vila continues:

Ten years ago Old Fitz introduced Young Fitz to a party of friends at the former champion's New Jersey home. The father put on the gloves with his son and the latter surprised the visitors with a dazzling exhibition of science.

"He's very clever, ain't he?" remarked Old Fitz during a short rest. "Well, now I'll show you something!"

Resuming the tilt, Old Fitz suddenly hooked his right to Young Fitz's chin with terrific force. Young Fitz, staggering, pulled off his gloves and threw them on the floor, as he walked hurriedly out of the barn.

"He can box well," said the ancient Cornishman, "but he can't take a punch. He ain't game!"

"I stopped because I didn't want to lose my temper," explained the kid at the dinner table. "I didn't care to slug the old gent!"—New York Times.

Popularity of Rubber Heels.
Sixty per cent of the shoes manufactured in the United States today are said to be equipped with rubber heels. Shoes for men are more often equipped with rubber heels than shoes for women. It is estimated that 73 per cent of the rubber heels manufactured are for men. The United States census of manufactures of 1920, covering production during 1919, showed that 275,357,206 pairs of leather boots and shoes were manufactured by 1,449 establishments. This was exclusive of slippers and fiber and other footwear not of leather. During the same period the production of rubber heels reached 138,468,769 pairs and 9,777,085 pairs of rubbers and composition fiber soles were manufactured.

HARDING TO TALK ON MANY TOPICS

PLANS FOR PRESIDENT'S WEST-ERN AND ALASKA TRIP VIR-TUALLY COMPLETE.

HE STARTS ABOUT JUNE 10

First Speech, in West Virginia, Prob-ably Will Deal With Labor—World Court, Railroads, Agriculture to Be Among His Subjects.

Washington.—It is understood that the first public speech which the Pres-ident will make on his forthcoming journey through the country, which is to have Alaska as its terminal point, will be made in West Virginia. This speech doubtless will be weighted with interest because it is believed that it will deal with labor.

One of the subjects to which the President will direct attention prob-ably in several of his speeches has been outlined as "a consideration of remedies for labor troubles, particu-larly with reference to the necessity of safeguarding the public against strikes in the transportation indus-try and in the coal mines." The West Virginia speech, therefore, should be il-luminating.

A few days after the Shrine con-vention closes its sessions and the gen-tlemen whose habit it is to travel the hot sands have gone back home, the President expects to start on his jour-ney. The day will be June 10 or there-abouts. Tentatively the itinerary of the President has been arranged. From West Virginia the President will go to Cincinnati, where, if he does not change his mind in the mean-time, it is expected he will speak for the first time publicly and definitely on the administration's position in re-ference to American membership in the world court.

Speeches on Out-Going Trip.
From Cincinnati he will go to Louis-ville, then to St. Louis, and from there to Kansas City, speaking in each place. One city in Oklahoma yet to be decided upon is to be visited and its inhabitants addressed by the Pres-ident. There is a little doubt as to the next movement, but the chances are that the party will move back from Oklahoma to Memphis, and from there may proceed to New Orleans.

Two main speeches are to be made in Texas, and others will be deliv-ered in Arizona and New Mexico while on the way to Los Angeles. There will be one speech in Los Angeles, another in San Francisco, another in Port-land, Ore., and a final speech on the out-going journey in Seattle, from which port the President will sail to Alaska.

On the way back Seattle will be the point of departure by railroad for the East. The places in which addresses are to be delivered on the return jour-ney have not yet been fixed, except that it is virtually certain that Min-neapolis will be visited, and that Chi-cagoans certainly are to hear the President.

What's the President going to talk about? Leaving the world court out of consideration, the railroad prob-lem will be the chief subject of dis-cussion. It is said President Harding does not believe with a good many members of his party that the Esch-Cummings transportation act should be repealed. Unquestionably it is his in-tention to suggest means that he thinks will strengthen this law.

It is believed by some persons here that he will advocate a change in the law governing the railroad labor board, his wish being, it is said, to move the board from Chicago and to make of it a sort of labor bureau work-ing within the domain of the Inter-state Commerce commission.

May Make Defense of Tariff.
It is said the President will make a defense of the tariff law enacted by the last congress. It is said also his view is now that the tariff commis-sion's determination that the tariff has nothing to do with the advancing cost of sugar gives him additional reason for the arguments which he will ad-vance in favor of a customs act which the Democrats daily are attacking.

The immigration question will be discussed thoroughly. It is said in Washington that the main speeches on this subject will be delivered in those cities which have the densest foreign population, and from which has come the majority of the demands that en-trance into the country of the foreign born shall be made easier. This im-migration matter is a troubling one for the administration.

In the Middle West the President will talk at considerable length on ag-riculture, recognized of course by both political parties today as one of the upstanding questions of the hour. In the Middle West there has been oppo-sition to several of the administra-tion's legislative endeavors, and seem-ingly there has been a feeling there that all that it is possible to do has not been done for the agricultural inter-ests. A great many of his party men believe the crucial test of the success of the President's journey from a party standpoint will be made in the Middle West.

They Think They Think.
A "world congress of brain workers" is being held in Paris. The men who merely think they think are much in evidence. They are easily unloized. The total membership is said to be about 180,000.—Brooklyn Eagle.

MOTHER-IN-LAW

prayers will have great weight with her children in the standard of man-hood and womanhood they will de-mand of those who may seek their hand in marriage.

"I have known of young men saying, 'The girl I marry must be something like my mother,' and a daughter de-manding, 'that the man that got her must be like my dad.'"

"These young people had charac-ter in mind, and that conception of life is the result of home training, ideals and decisions. The majority of our domestic troubles come from homes where such ideals are lacking and where such training is unknown."

"Give Us Better Mothers."
"Give us better mothers and fathers, and we will have better children, better homes, happier lives. Many a mother-in-law has had a bitter ex-perience with her new son or daugh-ter because the home from which that one came had failed in its responsi-bility."

"The reason for so many 'misun-derstandings' over mere trifles, is traceable to the sad neglect of the home to teach and exemplify those qualities of manliness and woman-hood that are absolutely necessary. If the mother was 'always' getting her feelings hurt, and the father frequently suffered from 'a groan,' little wonder that the daughter, when some little 'unpleasantness' arose, insisted on 'going home to mamma,' or the new husband fell into a 'case of sulks.'"

"Often times circumstances are such that the mother-in-law is entangled in such troubles and, unless she be of the type referred to—a good mother—the case becomes aggravated and diffi-culties multiply. Moral, Be a good woman, a real mother, and you will make a good mother-in-law."

Principles Of Right Living
"Character is too little estemed, sons and daughters too poorly pre-pared in the art of home making and the principles of right living, hence so many divisions, separations, di-vores, wrecked homes and wretch-ed lives."

"But, often the unexpected and un-usual happens. Then the real test of womanhood comes. Here cir-cumstances seemed to demand a rad-ical change and this family were compelled to move and Naomi's two sons formed new acquaintances with two McElfish girls which resulted in their taking these women in mar-riage. This was 'irregular' to Israel-ites custom. Possibly against the wishes of this home, but these sons may have been to have their own way, bound to have their own way, and married 'against the wishes' of the 'old folks.'"

"Now the problem begins, an em-barrassing situation has to be met. Of the details, no one knows, but the outcome reveals to us that the moth-er-in-law, Naomi, proved equal to her task. She was true to the first requirement I mentioned—faithful to her God."

Wins Her Respect
"Such was her life before her daughters-in-law that she won their respect and affection and one of them, Ruth was led to reject her idolatrous religion and accept the true religion her new life relation brought to her. 'I do not give all the credit of this to Naomi. Her son, Ruth's husband, may have had the greater influence, and his loyalty to God and integrity of character might well have been used in convincing his wife and turning her away from her idols to the worship and service of the true God."

"If he was of this type, he differs materially from not a few of modern young men who marry Godless and idolatrous wives and allow them-selves to be turned back into the world or 'for the sake of peace in the family,' live in nominal assent to modern idolatry. Very few of such alliances have turned out as happily as this one, and I give the credit to the Godly virility of this mother and her son."

"It has been proven, only too often, that the lack of Christian fellowship, or the radical differences in religious training and belief, that exists as between Jew and Gentile, Roman Catholic and Protestant forms a barrier to happiness that any young man or woman does well to recog-nize ere they pledge themselves in the marriage vow. Times without number love has failed to break down this wall."

Inadvisable Alliances
"Such alliances are unadvisable, fraught with unhappy consequences, jeopardize the spiritual development of the Christian and multiply the problems of the homes involved."

"This mother-in-law won a signal victory when, after the death of her husband and two sons, she decided to return to her own land and people. When she counsels her daughters-in-law to remain in their own coun-try and seek another marriage among their own people, the three widows wept bitterly and finally with a fare-well kiss Orpha said 'Good bye, moth-er,' and turned back to her own peo-ple, but Ruth refused to go with her sister, clinging to her mother-in-law and begging not to be sent away, say-ing, 'Entreat me not to leave thee, where thou goest I will go, thy people shall be my people and thy God my God, naught but death shall ever part us.' A life-return for a life-service."

"Ruth's transformation was not a matter of convenience and sentiment but the result of intelligent convic-tion, a spiritual experience that had freed her from the grossness of id-olance, superstition and idolatry and idolatry and brought her into a personal relation with the God her mother-in-law worshiped and exem-plified."

comfort and deep satisfaction, a fit-ting reward for faithful motherhood. "The closing tribute to this remark-able woman is her wisdom and diplo-macy in arranging for her daughter-in-law's future. Familiar with the custom and responsibilities of family relationship Naomi so directs affairs that in an honest and honorable man-ner, Ruth became the wife of a wealthy and eminent relative. "Such was the confidence reposed in her mother-in-law that Ruth un-hesitatingly follows her every direc-tion, a peculiar guardianship seems to be given her and in her subse-quent experience, she is wondrously fitted into the plan which her moth-er-in-law God has for her."

"This is the very acme of the whole story—Fitting a life into God's plan; many strange experi-ences; many hard places; disappoint-ments, doubts, even death, yet, through it all, God's hand."

"O, for such characters as Naomi, faithful, loving, tactful patient, God-ly, to help us to find, love and cling to God! To cheer, sweeten and sanc-tify our home life, making us equal in the tremendous responsibility of establishing and maintaining this God-given institution. The Lord give us more such mothers-in-law."

MOTHER

How Much Do You Really Love Her?

MORE than homage on one day a year—more than gifts and letters and sentiment—is the thoughtful provision of those daily comforts which add to her span of years and express your sincerest devotion.

The Mother crowned with white surely needs electric labor-saving assistance. And the young mother with the two romping children requires that capable electric washer fully as much as the older woman of frailer strength.

If you have a Mother to honor next Sunday—and happy is he who has—consider carefully whether there isn't some burden of home-keeping that electricity would lighten for her.

Quimet Still Leads In Golf Tournament

Deal, England, May 10.—Two of the remaining four American invaders were beheaded in the fourth round of the British amateur golf championship today but when the bloodless operation was over the Yanks had the satisfaction of knowing that their best bet, Dr. O. F. Willing of Portland, Ore., and Francis Quimet, Boston, still survived the issue.

Why Paths Are Crooked.

The reason most paths are crooked was explained the other day by a Lynbrook commuter, who ever since the Spanish war has been cutting across lots to catch the 7:42. "Did you ever see a straight path?" he asked. "There may be some, but there's none in Lynbrook. What makes 'em crooked is the fact that one leg of man is shorter than the other. If he wandered aimlessly he would go around in a circle, but having his home as an objective he soon corrects his position. This makes a curve in the original path.

"Then, too, when he starts making the path he will stumble over the rough places. Others follow in his footsteps and a curve develops. A 'straight and narrow' path is never formed naturally and it would be a hard road to walk in."—New York Sun.

CHINA MAY OFFER BANDITS RANSOM

Washington, May 10.—The Chinese government will deal pacifically and not fight with the Shantung train bandits who kidnaped American and other foreign travelers, the American government was assured today by the acting minister of foreign affairs at Peking.

This action on the part of Peking was interpreted here as indicating that the Peking authorities will at once take steps to provide the ransom money demanded by the brigands and leave until a later date punitive action against the outlaws.

Butler Farm Bureau Hears Halverstad

That the responsibility of the work of the township organization rests with its individual members was an outstanding thought in a talk given by Clark Halverstad, Lectonia, president of the Columbiana County Farm bureau, Wednesday evening at a meeting of Butler Township Farm bureau at the schoolhouse near Valley. His theme was "Our Unit." That the county organization could not do the work for the township organization was pointed out by Mr. Halverstad.

E. Y. Gamble gave a few remarks on the fertilizer situation, explaining why the shipments had been held up and stating that the situation is improved.

A. U. Patton spoke interestingly on spraying, pruning and marketing of fruit trees, urging the necessity for proper care of the trees. A general discussion on horticulture followed.

The county purchasing agent urged the members to get their fertilizer and lime orders in now for fall deliveries.

SEAMEN ATTEMPT TO SALVAGE TUG

Two Sailors Faced Death When Waves Crushed Their Oars.

Toledo, May 10.—Lake seamen put out from here today in an attempt to salvage the tug Donmar, pounding to pieces off Turtle Island, but it is feared that their efforts will be unavailing.

Captain Russell Dewey and two sailors, adrift in a flat-bottom boat, faced death for three hours yesterday in Lake Erie. Before they were finally rescued by Captain Ray Cornell of the tug Louisiana, who went to their assistance when the tug was reported missing.

Captain Dewey's tug left Monroe on Toledo yesterday afternoon, but ran into a heavy gale several miles north of the Maumee river. The tug sprang a leak and was beached on a sand bar. A mile from land the tug and crew set out in a flat-bottomed life boat. Heavy seas, however, broke their oars and the sides of the boat were giving way when they were finally rescued.

Captain Cornell said the boat could not have stood the pounding of the heavy seas for another hour.

VOTERS TO PASS UPON MEASURES

Old Age Pension Among Proposals to Go on Ballot.

TAX REFERENDUM POSSIBLE

Advocates of Minimum Wage For Women Declare the Proposition Is Not Dead—Referendum Likely on the Bill Sidetracked by the Assembly—Waters Closed to Fishermen During Spawning Season.

Columbus, May 10.—Among the proposals that will appear on the ballot next fall will be the old-age pension measure.

Thomas Donnelly, secretary of the Ohio State Federation of Labor, last week filed with Secretary of State Thad H. Brown, a form of petition for such a pension was initiated before the legislature but that body treated it with even less consideration than it gave the women's minimum wage law, as the old age bill did not have sufficient vitality to get out of the committee. Petitions circulated to get the bill before the general assembly contained the signatures of 3 per cent of the voters. This number is only half enough to get the proposal on the ballot and petitions backed by the State Federation of Labor and the Fraternal Order of Eagles, will be started at once to get the other 3 per cent.

Referendums were called by the legislature to bring about a removal of constitutional obstacles to the elimination of the open liability clauses in the amendment to the workmen's compensation law and to authorize the secretary of state to give publicity to proposals to be submitted to a vote, by advertising them in newspapers, instead of mailing voters copies of the proposals together with arguments for and against them.

Voters once again may be given an opportunity to say whether the words "white male" are to be stricken from that portion of the constitution of the state prescribing the qualifications for voters.

Since the federal constitution provides women and negroes may vote, the fact that the Ohio constitution limits the privilege to "white male" citizens, doesn't mean anything.

The same proposition was voted on in 1912 and while it lost by a big majority, the colored gentleman continued to vote and when the federal constitution was amended to give women the right to vote, congress did not even take into consideration the fact that the Ohio constitution limited suffrage to males.

A referendum also may be held on the Taft taxation bill. Realators are behind the movement. According to Robert A. Taft, Cincinnati, father of the bill, the measure is not subject to a referendum. The constitution provides that measures "providing for tax levies" are not subject to referendum and become laws as soon as they are filed with the secretary of state. Taft says this provision is broad enough to prevent its being passed upon by the voters, on the ground the bill provides for the levying of 17 mills in cities and municipalities and 14 mills in rural districts. In case this feature of his bill does not protect it, it is pointed out it actually provides for levying taxes, as it provides for a tax of 2.65 mills in all school districts for school purposes.

Senator Burke of Elyria issued a statement relative to the minimum wage for women bill, killed by the assembly. He asserted the proposition is not dead and intimated it might be made the subject of a national referendum. While the United States supreme court took a fall out of a minimum wage bill by declaring it unconstitutional, it is said a state may get around the objections of the highest tribunal by exercising its police powers and pass such a bill. The general assembly, however, killed any immediate chance the proposal had in Ohio, by sidetracking the bill itself and substituting a fact finding committee to investigate conditions in states where the bill is in effect and make a report to the next assembly. Friends of the bill say the committee is unfriendly to the bill. It is said, however, advocates of the bill will not wait for the committee to report but will call for a referendum on the bill.

An order closing spawning grounds in all state waters has been issued by A. C. Baxter, chief of the state fish and game division, with the closing of the bass season today. According to James Stuber, assistant of the department, excellent natural spawning grounds exist in Buckeye and Indian lakes, St. Mary's reservoir and Lake Loramie. Disturbing of these grounds either by boats or by the taking of fish from the nests formerly resulted in the loss of thousands of fish every year, which led to the department closing the grounds with a strand of wire and prohibiting all trespassing during the spawning season.

son, Mr. Stuber said. The practice was started three years ago and since that date there has been an enormous increase in the number of bass and blue gills in state waters, he said. The bass season will be closed until June 16 and Mr. Baxter wants fishermen taking bass unintentionally to exercise great care in handling them. The fisherman's hands should be wet before touching the fish in order to avoid breaking the scales and the hook should be removed without cutting the fish, he said. The death of a single spawning bass may result in the loss of 10,000 young bass in a single season, according to Mr. Stuber, who said fishermen must be satisfied for the next six weeks with taking rock bass, catfish, blue gills, perch and carp. If care is exercised in getting the fish back into the water, 75 per cent of them will recover, he said.

The fish and game division also announced the first shipment of pheasant eggs, of which 50,000 are expected to be distributed among farmers of Ohio, who are requested to loose the young birds on game preserves. The state is exercising jurisdiction over 100,000 acres of privately owned land which has been dedicated by the owners to the propagation of game.

Dr. William C. Mills, director of the Archaeological and Historical museum of Ohio, is of the opinion that there was a greater civilization in Ohio 10,000 years ago than that of Egypt in its palmiest days. "I am convinced that the Ohio Indian lived fully 10,000 years ago," says Dr. Mills. "Right here in Ohio they established a culture that exceeded in art production anything ever found in Europe. The splendor, culture and romance of Egypt were far surpassed in early American history."

Dr. Mills declares that somewhere on this continent, either in Central or South America, a king will be unearthed in the midst of a civilization greater and older than that of Egypt.

It is announced that more than 200,000 pounds of wool have already been received for co-operative sale at the Ohio Sheep and Wool Growers' association warehouse in Columbus. The wool received up to the close of last week was largely made up of motor truck shipments made by counties surrounding Columbus. Carload shipments from points over the state are expected to start coming to the warehouse during next week. Last year the Ohio Wool association handled wool for producers of seven states. More than 2,500,000 pounds of wool were sold co-operatively through the Columbus warehouse.

Ohio has led all states in the volume of wool sold co-operatively for several years, according to the Ohio Farm Bureau federation. Last year it handled almost as much wool as the total of all other state pools.

The state industrial commission had a balance of $42,481,393.65 to its credit in the state treasury at the end of business last Saturday, the largest in the history of the workmen's compensation law. This is an increase of more than $2,000,000 during the past year, the balance on the same date a year ago being only $40,145,919.29. Of the balance on hand at the present time, $40,413,018.35 is invested in bonds, $1,492,803.87 in the active or checking account, and $575,571.42 in the inactive or deposit account. Receipts for the first four days of May were $217,466.06, as compared with $127,102.02 on the same day in 1922.

The Lake Shore Electric railway company asked the Ohio supreme court to define the obligation of travelers on unfamiliar roads in crossing railroad tracks. The definition was asked in the case of Morris Robbins of Cleveland, who was killed by a Lake Shore traction car in April, 1919, while driving an automobile from Toledo to Cleveland. Cleveland courts awarded Robbins' estate $5,000 damages, which the supreme court is asked to set aside.

Harry Targony of Youngstown, in person, filed a petition in the supreme court appealing from his conviction in the Mahoning county courts on a charge of blackmail. Targony brought his attorney with him in order to obtain a new stay of sentence pending the hearing of his appeal. He was accused of endeavoring to extort $250 in fees from Jim Bandaranaka and Steve Kuch, for whom he acted as bondsman in suits heard before a justice of the peace in which they were charged with violating the prohibition laws.

REPORTS ON ROAD WORK IN COUNTY

Lisbon, May 10.—Grading of 2.23 miles of the Summitville-Millport-Gavers rd. according to an estimate just prepared by County Surveyor Lloyd C. Kirk will cost approximately $11,000 and new bridge construction has been estimated at $4,350. There is not an improved road in Franklin township, it being the only township in the county possessing such a record.

It now seems probable that Pottery's bill in Franklin township will be graded before long. Description of the properties of James L. Doyle, P. J. Hogan, James K. Potter, Henry A. Betton and Mary Ann Malone, have been filed with the county commissioners, as the lands of these people front on this bill road.

No funds are yet in sight for the improvement of 1,700 feet of the Lisbon-Leetonia rd. the cost being estimated at $3,950. This connecting link closed, will give a straight road north from Lisbon to Leetonia.

Work resurfacing four miles of the Lincoln Highway west of Lisbon is not bright for speed on this job now a month behind, and prospects until after the Canton bridge is made safe for traffic. Temporary improvements are being made to the bridge and with this work finished, it will then be possible to haul brick from Lisbon to the job instead of from Kensington.

Can You Afford to Speculate?

EVERY time you buy something you are either speculating or making a definite investment.

Few people can afford to speculate. Yet many do it continually, in making their every-day purchases. And it is so unnecessary! The advertisements make it easy for any one to avoid taking a chance.

The merchant or manufacturer who advertises, realizes that the good-will of his customers means money in the bank to him. He knows that public confidence in his product and public respect for his own character are as valuable as his credit at the bank.

So he makes the individual satisfaction of his patrons, their loyalty and their friendship paramount issues in his business.

When you buy an advertised product, you can know in advance what to expect in return for your money. You can count on its being right. You are making an investment.

But when you buy nameless, unbranded merchandise, you are taking a chance. You are speculating.

Know what to buy. The advertisements will tell you.

OHIO BANKERS SEE TEMPORARY CHECK TO HIGHER PRICES

Columbus, May 10. — Threatened sluggish credit conditions over Ohio may temporarily suspend the current rise of prices and check the present incline of business prosperity, according to a financial forecast issued by the Ohio Bankers association.

Money for building purposes and advancing business enterprises is becoming less and less available, the forecast stated. Lending institutions are said to be demanding firmer collateral in their monetary negotiations. The banks in Ohio have in the last six months tapped every available resource to supply funds to home builders and industries with the capital necessary for production, the report averred.

A statement from the Bank Department of Ohio covering state and national banks showed that Ohio banks have entrusted to the industries of the state more than $1,170,000. Real estate and agricultural enterprises are responsible for loans amounting to $410,000,000, showing an increase of 12 per cent over the similar record of the previous year.

"The banks of Ohio are making every available effort to tide the home industries over the threatened credit slump during the summer months," stated W. H. Yeasting, of Toledo, president of Ohio Bankers Association.

"In many sections of the state banks have so drained their resources to meet the demands of industry that they have been compelled to rediscount a portion of their notes on hand," stated Mr. Yeasting.

20 MILLIONS PAID TO SCREEN STARS

New York, May 10.—The millions of dollars which have flickered and passed on the movie screen are being counted by the federal trade commission in its inquiry into the motion picture industry.

Testimony revealed $20,110,000 was paid stars by the First National, Inc., in the first four years of its operation.

The first contract made by the corporation was for $1,000,000 to Charlie Chaplin for eight pictures in 1917, James D. Williams, founder of the organization, declared.

Some other big contracts he told of included:

Opa Petrova, $80,000 each, for eight pictures.

Mary Pickford, $250,000 each for three pictures.

Norma Talmadge $160,000 each for eight pictures.

Constance Talmadge, $110,000 each for six pictures.

The hearing is to determine whether the Famous Players-Lasky Co., is a trust.

Strange Mystery In Man's Disappearance

Lincoln Home Byron Shoup

Warren J. Lincoln, a well-to-do Aurora (Ill.) man, has strangely disappeared from his home. A blood stained Indian club was found in the rear of his home, together with signs of a struggle. At the same time Lincoln's wife, Mrs. Lina Shoup Lincoln, from whom he was estranged, and her brother Byron Shoup, who had an altercation with Lincoln, vanished, and no trace of them has been found. Lincoln lived alone with Marie Klein, a 12-year-old girl, who acted as his house-keeper and who has given the police much valuable information.

WILLARD WILL WIN FROM JOHNSON IN WRITER'S OPINION

By Davis J. Walsh

New York, May 10.—Close students of fistie form are asking the pertinent question today as to whether Jess Willard can do on Saturday at the Milk Fund show what Jim Jeffries failed to do nearly 13 years ago at Reno, to-wit: Pull a middle-aged come-back after a protracted absence from the ring. They feel his commendable outward appearance, only serves to hide what they term the inevitable signs of inward decay.

They believe Willard will burn out in a few rounds just as Jeffries did against Jack Johnson. The writer disagrees with this theory, not because Willard is a better man than Jeffries, but because his return to the ring will be made under more favorable auspices.

In the first place, Jeffries was sent against one of the best heavyweights of all time, while in Floyd Johnson, Willard meets a mere second-rater. In the second place, Willard's style is much more conservative than was Jeffries and the question of collapsing from his own exertions is virtually no question at all because Willard is not the man to exert himself. He stands on his feet and makes his opponent come to him. Otherwise there is no fight.

For this reason, and others, Willard should be the winner over Floyd Johnson at the end of 15 rounds. One of the other reasons is that Johnson seems to be made-to-measure for the exclamation. He cannot hit hard enough to hurt a man of Willard's proportions and his usual rushing style must be discarded if he wishes to avoid being made a mark for Willard's counters.

It is said that Johnson plans to circle around the giant at the same time letting fly a series of left jabs. Willard probably will be only casually interested in these maneuvers for the simple reason that his superior height will make him almost immune from Johnson's punches to the head.

This leaves body as Johnson's most available target. It is not a happy prospect. To play for the body, Johnson must get in close, and while Willard is not a body puncher essentially, he is far too big and strong for Johnson to have a chance with him in the clinches.

In other words, if Willard is half the man he appears to be, he should win from Johnson under wraps.

"Home, Sweet Home," an extent of Tuesday.

John Howard Payne, the son of William Payne, a Massachusetts' man and Sarah Isaac, a Jewess wrote the words to the song in 1822.

Payne is said to have received his inspiration for "Home, Sweet Home" when he heard a little Italian girl singing a folk song of her native land. It was largely through his friend Henry R. Bishop, that Payne successfully produced the song.

While Payne wrote the words and suggested the lyric, Bishop composed the melody and fitted the words to it. Bishop first used Payne's draft of the song in an operetta known as "Angioletti," the title of which Payne later changed to "Clari the Maid of Milan."

"The original manuscript of "Home, Sweet Home," is now in the possession of the University of Rochester, N. Y.

Three Enter Race For City Solicitor

East Liverpool, May 10.—At least three candidates will be in the field for the city solicitorship at the primary election on Tuesday, Aug. 14th, according to rumors today.

Service Director Frank Grosshans will seek the Republican nomination, it is understood, opposing Atty. G. Jay Clark, who filed his declaration of candidacy for the G. O. P. nomination with the election board.

Ex-Mayor S. W. Crawford will also seek the nomination for solicitor on the Democratic ticket, his friends say. Mr. Crawford has already held the offices of mayor, sheriff and probate judge and is now connected with the law firm of Crawford & Cochran.

Gas on Stomach Won't Let You Sleep

Gas often presses on heart and other organs, causing a restless, nervous feeling which prevents sleep. Simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adlerka, expels gas and relieves pressure almost INSTANTLY, inducing restful sleep. Adlerka often removes surprising old matter from BOTH upper and lower bowel which poisoned stomach and caused gas. EXCELLENT to guard against appendicitis. J. H. Lease Drug Co

Lake Placentia To Furnish Sport For Knox Twp. People

Bathing Beach Planned And Cottages Will Dot Resort At Georgetown.

North Georgetown, May 10.—Forty acres of lake, ranging from one to 15 feet in depth, one quarter of a mile in width and three quarters of a mile in length and named "Lake Placentia," is to be the summer resort that Knox township people propose to "tell the world" about.

"We are going to have fishing, boating and bathing and everything," is the way W. L. Crist starts to boast this new lake, for it is in reality a new one and "unchartered," as the map makers would say.

This new lake has been formed by the building of a dam about a mile north of here into which the headwaters of the Mahoning river flows.

The source of this water is from springs, and they have been running as clear as crystal for years and years. It is interesting to note in this connection, therefore, that the source of the Mahoning river is in Columbiana county, and that it flows north into Mahoning county.

It is down near Chambersburg in West township where the Mahoning river begins its journey northward into Knox township. The little stream crosses the path of the new North Georgetown-Homeworth rd., and the water is spanned by a new concrete bridge recently completed as a part of this new road job.

About a mile a little to the north-west of Georgetown this stream of water was dammed. A spillway was built in the dam, so that the water at its greatest depth will never be over 15 feet.

In a very few weeks this new lake will be stocked with bass and blue

gills and several other varieties of fish.

Many cottages are to be built around the lake. Then there is to be a bathing beach, with dressing rooms attached and all other trimmings that go to make up a modern water resort.

This new water resort is reached by traveling the road directly south from the Cox Highway at Westville. The lake at Westville is passed and a little south of this famed spot is located "Lake Placentia."

Associated with Mr. Crist as president of the company backing the new resort are E. P. Wang, vice president; E. H. Greenhouse, secretary and Ed. Reichenbach, treasurer.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

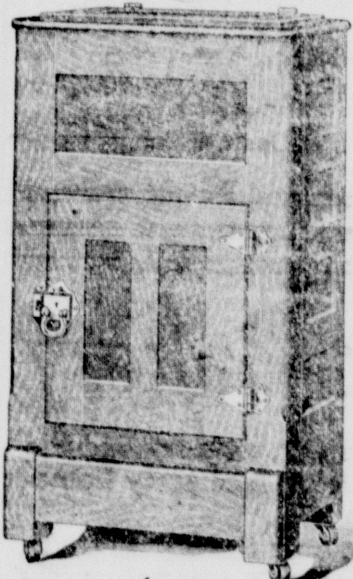

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. See and ask.

DEFIED THE TOUCH OF TIME

Sarah Bernhardt's Remark to Ellen Terry Reveals Character of Great French Actress.

On an evening some twenty-five years ago Miss Sarah Bernhardt was the guest of Sir Henry Irving at one of those intimate little supper parties in the Beefsteak room of the Lyceum theater over which he loved to preside. Conyns Carr writes in the London Times. The English actor was socially always at his best when his day's work was done, and his gracious hospitality provoked in those he gathered around his table a sense of ease and intimacy that was scarcely to be matched in any other of the bohemian entertainments of the time. During her repeated visits to England Miss Bernhardt was constantly to be counted among his guests; and in the act of Sir Henry Irving, which she never wearied of praising, she found, I think, that note of strong personality which is also the surviving characteristic of all her own work in the theater. On that particular occasion, as I remember, our talk concerned itself with the age at which some of the great actors of the past had produced their finest effects; when on a sudden Miss Bernhardt, leaning across the table toward Miss Ellen Terry, exclaimed in her broken English, which lost nothing of force from its imperfection, "My dear, there are two peoples in this world which shall never be old—you and I."

Couldn't Understand.

Recently a member of the police department was sued for divorce. A man was sent to police headquarters to serve the papers on him. The man, unfortunately, was directed to the sergeant's desk and mistaking the suit, started to read the papers without mentioning the defendant's name.

The desk sergeant listened patiently. Gradually his mouth drooped, a sorrowful expression came into his eyes and he appeared dejected.

"I can't understand that," he said. "I was only married last December. I just rented a new house and bought some new furniture and two tons of coal. Gosh, she appeared cheerful and happy when I left this morning. I don't see what's the matter."

A few minutes later the mistake was noticed and the desk sergeant showed his relief, and the man with the papers went in search of the defendant. —Indianapolis News.

Rheumatic Agony

NOW EASILY ENDED

Says Mr. James H. Allen of Rochester, N. Y.

It does not matter to me whether you are disabled with cursed rheumatism or have only occasional twinges, I know that Allenru, my own discovery, will stop the agony, do away with the gnawing pains and reduce the swollen joints.

I know it will dissolve the uric acid deposits that have become deeply imbedded in joints and muscles and quickly drive every trace of rheumatism from your body. I know this because I was crippled for years and many times was unable to work, and Allenru made a well, robust, healthy man of me.

I know because since I cured myself, hundreds have taken Allenru and speedily rid themselves of this agonizing disease.

No matter how severe your case, I urge you to put your faith in the prescription that it took me years to perfect—a prescription that made a new man of me after doctors tried and failed.

Allenru is no laggard! It starts right in at once; it gets into the blood, searches out the poisonous uric acid deposits and in two days starts to drive the concentrated impurities that cause rheumatism out of the body through the natural channels.

Ancient American King To Outrival 'Tut' Is Forecast

Columbus, May 10.—A king who will outrival Tutankhamen of ancient Egypt probably will be found in Central or South America.

Such is the prediction of William C. Mills, curator of the Ohio Archaeological and Historical museum.

"Right here in Ohio," Dr. Mills, who has made exhaustive studies of prehistoric man in America, declared, "the Indians established cultures that exceeded in artistic production anything ever found in Europe."

Egyptian culture, splendor and romance were more than eclipsed in Dr. Mills' opinion in early American civilization.

The Spaniards who came over for gold shortly after Columbus' expedition, he points out, returned with great quantities. Some ancient American ruler will come to light, he predicts, "in the midst of a civilization as great or greater than that of ancient Egypt."

Prehistoric man lived in Ohio as long as 10,000 years ago, Dr. Mills believes. Because the Ohio Indians had no form of writing, he says, it is difficult to determine just how long ago they held sway in this part of the country.

MONGER CREATES NEW DIVISION

Public Health Nursing to Be Headed by Miss Lorimer.

NINE ROAD PROJECTS HELD UP

Objection Made at Washington to the Ohio Practice of Including Divers Types of Road of Widely Divergent Cost When Advertising For Bids.

Columbus, May 10.—With the approval of Governor Donahay, public health nursing activities in the state department of health have been raised to the dignity of a full division, to be known as the division of public health nursing, by Director John E. Monger. Heretofore the work has been conducted by the bureau of public health nursing, in the division of hygiene, under supervision of Dr. R. G. Leland, chief of that division. Miss V. Lora Lorimer of Cleveland will be chief of the new division. She will assume the duties of the position May 25. As chief of the division, she will have charge of the nursing activities of the health department, of the administration of public health nursing in the state, of public health nursing education in Ohio, and of the registration and placement of public health nursing personnel. Miss Lorimer was endorsed for the position by virtually all the prominent nurses of the state.

Miss Lorimer is a graduate of Muskingum college and Lakeside hospital school of nursing, Cleveland, and affiliated graduate of the Lying-in hospital of the city of New York. Her first practical work in public health nursing was in connection with the visiting nurses' association of Cleveland and the Cleveland board of education. In 1913 she became identified with the Ohio commission for the blind, as supervisor of its staff of nurses. Five years later she left that position to become director of the department of nursing of the Lake division of the American Red Cross, where she remained until August, 1921, when she became acting superintendent of the visiting nurses' association of Cincinnati. In March, 1922, she was elected executive secretary of the Ohio State Association of Graduate Nurses, which position she is relinquishing to become chief of the new division of nursing. Miss Lorimer also is honorary treasurer of the American Nurses' association.

It was announced by State Highway Director Herrick that nine road projects in Ohio, on which federal aid was expected, have been held up by the department of agriculture at Washington. Objection is made to the Ohio practice of including several types of road of widely divergent cost and durability in specifications when advertising for bids. This was disclosed in a letter from P. S. Wilson, chief engineer of the federal road department, to V. M. Pierce, district engineer for Ohio. The note was forwarded to Director Herrick.

The letter says: "It is the practice of Ohio to submit a variety of cross section designs for a single improvement and in some cases the range of design has extended from water-bound macadam to reinforced concrete. The approval of such a variety of cross sections can not logically be given by the bureau and such approval would not be consistent with a proper regard for both substantial construction and economy." It is pointed out that the department can not give aid on a project that does not meet with its approval. At the same time it must approve the cheapest type that can be built, with due consideration, of course, to its durability, amount of traffic expected, and location of the road."

According to highway department officials, should the federal bureau approve of a cheap type of road and the state decide to build a more costly type, the federal aid would be based on the cheaper type.

This action of the federal bureau lends another aspect to the scrap in which Governor Donahay and Director Herrick recently engaged relative to advertising types of road cheaper than the one the state expected to build and is looked on in certain quarters as a vindication for Herrick. It may further hold up the road program, which was thought settled when Director Herrick agreed to include the cheaper types in the specifications submitted to the finance director for approval.

The letter instructs Mr. Pierce to make a careful survey of the routes proposed. While it says the bureau will consider as many types as the state may desire to submit, the federal aid granted will be based on the cheapest type, which in the estimation of the engineer will be practicable.

The letter to Director Herrick includes recommendations of material to be used on the nine projects held up. Concrete or brick is recommended for the Clark county road; reinforced concrete for Perry county; reinforced concrete for Trumbull; brick, sheet asphalt, reinforced concrete or bituminous concrete for Franklin; reinforced concrete for Van Wert; bituminous concrete for building; reinforced concrete for Henry; reinforced concrete for Green and bituminous macadam for Brown.

Governor Donahay urges use of the boycott to bring down the price of sugar. In a message to a meeting of housewives, held under the auspices of the Columbus Federation of Women's clubs, the governor said:

"While the sugar problem is a national one, and primarily one for the federal government to cope with, my personal opinion is that about the only weapon in the hands of the people is to practice a measure of self-denial in the purchase and use of sugar. While a boycott on the part of some people may induce others to hoard quantities larger than they actually need, I still think the practice of self-denial would be worth while from an individual health viewpoint as well as from that of public price regulation."

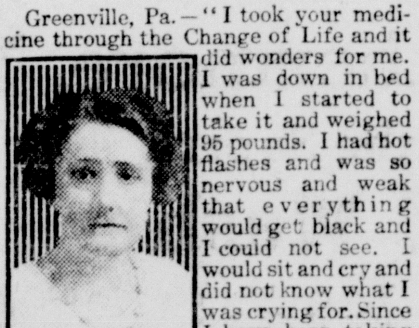

The gathering, attended by about 150 women, passed two resolutions to curtail its use of sugar, and resolutions directed to President Harding asking him to act to remedy the present sugar situation.

Postmaster General New's announced purpose to recognize defeated candidates for congress by consulting them in the distribution of postoffice patronage may cause a deal of trouble in Ohio. Civil service examinations for the selection of postmasters at Lancaster and Ravenna are to be held on May 22. Lancaster is in the Eleventh district, which Edwin D. Ricketts of Logan represented in congress until March 4 last. Ravenna is in the Fourteenth district. The representative of that district in the last congress was Charles L. Knight. He declined renomination and Frank E. Whittemore, the Republican candidate, was defeated at the polls. Under all previous customs and practices neither Ricketts, Knight nor Whittemore would have anything to say in regard to the selection of postmasters in their districts and the choosing of these officials would be a prerogative solely for the senators to exercise, but under the operation of postmaster general's new rule Ricketts and Whittemore will be consulted. If the persons whom they recommend are not objectionable to the senators they will get offices, provided the candidates are successful in landing on the eligible list when the civil service commission grades the papers.

This course is said to be contrary to the plans of the United States senators from Ohio, who are proceeding in the old-fashioned way to exercise their prerogatives. First of all, they have notified the chairmen of the Republican county committees in which the two offices are located and are taking all the usual steps looking to recommendations from the county committees, and not from the defeated candidates for congress, it is said. If the defeated congressional candidates desire to voice preference for the appointments they should make their wishes known to the county committees and let the committees weight their recommendations along with advice from other sources, according to the senatorial program.

CHANGE OF LIFE LOSES TERRORS

For Women Who Rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Greenville, Pa.—"I took your medicine through the Change of Life and it did wonders for me. I was down in bed when I started to take it and weighed 95 pounds. I had hot flashes and was so nervous and weak that everything would get black and I could not see. I would sit and cry and did not know what I was crying for. Since I have been taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I feel younger than I did ten years ago, and my friends all tell me I look younger, and I owe it all to the Vegetable Compound. I do all my housework for a family of seven now. I will be glad to answer any woman who writes me in regard to my case."—Mrs. JOHN MYERS, 55 Union St., Greenville, Pa.

Many letters similar to this have been published testifying to the merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. They are sincere expressions from women who describe as best they can their feelings before and after taking this well-known medicine.

Many times they state in their letters their willingness to answer women who write them. It is an offer dictated by gratitude and a desire to help others.

Kidney Trouble Disturbed His Rest

"I was a sufferer for several years from kidney and bladder trouble and had to get up many times each night on account of the condition that I was in. I can truthfully say that I am entirely cured and would advise any who are suffering from this terrible disease to try Dr. Carey's Marshroot." Signed C. H. Kitchie, Elmira.

What is Dr. Carey's Marshroot? It is Dr. Carey's own prescription known as No. 777, for many years used by him with remarkable success in the treatment of kidney and bladder troubles. It consists of roots and herbs that have a direct and specific action only on the kidneys and urinary organs. It can always be obtained at all good druggists the country over.

8 BIDS RECEIVED FOR U. S. VESSELS

Washington, May 10.—Eight bids from leading steamship companies for the government's fleet of merchant vessels already filed with the United States shipping board, have encouraged officials to believe there is a possibility of disposing of at least a portion of the ships at satisfactory figures. B. Small, president of the Emergency Fleet corporation, said today.

Representatives of owners and operators have been in frequent conference with the shipping board. All indicated a lively interest in purchase of various routes of the fleet and while none of the bids will be opened until May 28, Small declared some favorable offers are anticipated.

Advice For Mothers

You Cannot Afford to Overlook One Word of This

Cambridge, Ohio—"When my baby was six months old I had gone down in health with inward weakness so that I could not get around to do my housework or care for my baby. I was just about 'down and out' when I started to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The first bottle proved to me that I was taking the right medicine and six bottles helped me to get around to do my work as easily as before my illness. Favorite Prescription really did do wonders for me and I am glad to recommend it at every opportunity."—Mrs. M. E. Stephenson, 4171 Long St.

PRESIDENTS NEED SOME PROTECTION

COMPELLED TO SHAKE HANDS WITH THOUSANDS OF CALLERS AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

BUT THEY NEVER COMPLAIN

Mr. Harding is Especially Genial With His Visitors and Does Nothing to Make Easier His Life in Business Hours.

By EDWARD B. CLARK

Washington.—The hinges on the main doors of the presidential offices at the White House are wearing out from ceaseless swinging. Through the years the suggestion has been that a society is needed to exercise its ingenuity to save the presidents from their friends, their friends numbering 110,000,000 people, American citizens all.

Every president, in the memory of living man at any rate, has stood in need of the ministrations of an organization whose business it would be to ease the chief executives of some of their burdens. The handshaker is in Washington today and his name is something more than legion. He has been in Washington before, for he has left the impressions of his footsteps on the path leading to the White House through the succeeding seasons of all the years. Warren G. Harding, being particularly personally kindly disposed by birth and upbringing, probably never will do anything to make easier his life in the White House during business hours. The crowds are pouring in and they are bigger than ever they were before.

Presidents of the United States chosen by the people for temporary occupancy of the White House, are human beings and it might be said that the Maker of us all did not intend the presidents to be perpetual-motion machines, and did not endow them with hands of iron or constitutions of steel.

Hard Days for Mr. Harding.

April is the month when the world comes to Washington. Within 48 hours, standing at a non-handshaking distance, the writer hereof saw at least 700 people file into the office of the President to shake his hand and to be the receivers, every handshaker in his own behalf, of the presidential hopes that the folks at home all were well.

Take a recent Tuesday which was cabinet day. President Harding was at his desk early. He conferred with several legislators, several party leaders, and with a whatnot collection of others. Then the cabinet officers came and there was a cabinet session. On leaving the "presence chamber" the members of the official family fought their way through a besieging crowd of visitors. The President was game for the task, and stood smiling at his desk as he always smiles. Some people probably have the delusion that between the hours of twelve and one each day when the surges of humanity are beating through the doorway, the President is enjoying himself. It would not do for him to let anybody know any other is the case.

On the day when one stood at his observation view to witness the whirl of things, Daughters of the American Revolution, not content with having heard the President speak the day before and not content with the promise of a later reception, were many of them on hand to pass along the line, to put hand in hand and to go home to say: "I did it."

The Daughters were followed by 250 young women from here, there and everywhere, who soon are to go to Europe on some special sightseeing visit. Intent, and who, of course, could not depart from the homeland without saying good-by to the chieftain thereof.

Behind the 250 came a phalanx of Czechoslovakians who have distinguished themselves more or less by their ability to sing and by their interest in certain Red Cross doings. There were about 60 in this overseas delegation, and each of the 60 pressed the presidential palm.

Brides and Grooms.

Following these were brides and grooms, for this is the h. and g. season in Washington, and some other scores of American citizens, each of whom believed with all the others that had gone before that his or her presence and his or her handshake were necessary to mark the occasion with distinction and to make sure that Warren G. Harding might be included when the general verdict was rendered that a good time was had by all.

Possibly this may be considered by the reader to be more or less flippant. If President Harding were willing to say a thing he cannot say and never will say, it is possible that from him might come the admission that it might be well if it were ordered otherwise.

So far as anyone knows, no president ever has so much as confided to anyone his feelings concerning the destruction that wasteth at noonday. If the presidents of the United States ever are to be relieved from the danger of being overcome by the over-desire of their fellow citizens to do them honor, the relief must come from without the White House. It is a chance for somebody to enjoy a society for the prevention of cruelty to presidents.
